SPEECHES OF Hendricks and Voorhees.

Democratic Convention on the Eighth of January, 1862, and the speech of Hon. Daniel W. Voorhees, in the House of Representatives, February 20, on the duty of the Federal Government in its relations to the civil war and the objects for which it should be prosecuted, are for sale at this office, published in a pamphlet of sixteen pages, including both speeches. Each onet is among the ables delivered on the present crisis, and should be placed in the hands of every voter in the State.

DEATH OF HON. JAMES WILSON,-The friends of this gentleman in this city were pained yesterday to hear of his death. He was a resident of Crawfordsville, Montgomery county, a lawyer of great ability and a politician of the Republican school. He had eminent abilities as an orator, and in his Congressional district was among the toremost men of his party. He defeated the Hon. D. W. Voorhees for Congress some years ago, and this was a great triumph for he met on the stump one of the most gifted men of the State, of the West, of the Union. Mr. Wilson had his faults and his failings, as all men have. May he re t in peace. He died early, being only some thirty-five years of age.

Fruit prospects are almost everywhere pronounced good. This is true of Western New York, so far as observed, and in Delaware the prospect for peaches is much better than usual. Many who own large orchards are represented to be fearful of such a large crop as to reduce prices below a remunerative point. > BUILDING IN INDIANAPOLIS DURING THE PRES-ENT SEASON.-We are informed that extensive preparations are making with reference to building in this city during the present spring and coming summer. Several magnificent edifices, among them those of Mr. Vinton, Mr. Vajen, Mr. Hudson, Mr. Graves, Mr. Waters, Mr. Ruschhaupt, Mr. Tindall, Mr. Nixon, Mr. Holman and others will be put up. Besides these is the business block in progress of erection by Messrs. New and Talbott on Pennsylvania street, south of the Postoffice, which, we understand, is to be finished in modern style with all the modern improvements. Then we counted, during a drive throughout the city yesterday, over fifty framed tenements, begun or nearly finished. From our con ersations with landlords and contractors we conclude that the coming season will be a busy one with carpenters, architects, stone masons and brick-layers.

MEDICAL. TO THE PEOPLE

Of the United States. in the month of December, 1858, the undersigned for the first time offered for sale to the public Dr. J. Bovee Dods' Imperial Wine Bitters, and in this short period they have given such universal satisfaction to the many thousands of persons who have tried them that it is now an established article. The amoun of bodily and mental misery arising simply from a neglect of small complaints is surprising, and it is therefore of the utmost importance that a strict attention to the least and most trifling bodily ailment should be had; for diseases of the body must invariably affect the mind.
